

RICH MAN'S OLYMPICS

<http://mohawknationnews.com/blog/>

MNN. July 25, 2012. According to a legend made up by the elite, the original Olympics was founded by Hercules, the son of Zeus. Today we are conditioned to watch a bunch of white people having fun at our expense. The First real modern Olympic Games took place in Athens in 1896. There have been 27 since. Officially 3 are listed as games, even though they never took place, in 1916, 1940 and 1944. In 1936 German Karl Diem suggested the torch relay. In Germany Joseph Goebbels, the Minister of Propaganda, created the biggest indoctrination event for the Third Reich. Fuhrer Adolph Hitler and his henchmen concocted the run from Athens, which everybody is copying. It was political theatre carefully scripted and paid entirely by Nazi Germany.

Previous Games were comparatively low budget. Hitler wanted to outdo the 1932 Los Angeles Olympics by building a 100,000 seat stadium, six gyms and many arenas. For the first time, a closed circuit TV system and radio network reached 41 countries, state of the art electronic equipment broadcast the games. Leni Riefenstahl, Hitler's favorite director, filmed the Games. She pioneered the modern sports coverage, which is the myth of white supremacy.

The Olympics has always been a platform for the white elite. All the events needed expensive coaching, equipment and infrastructure, and no real competition. Only corporate countries could afford such extravaganzas.

Athletic superiority of the white race was showcased in such sports as: Aquatics, archery, badminton, basketball, boxing, canoeing, cycling, equestrian, fencing, soccer, golf, gymnastics, handball, modern pentathlon, rowing, sailing, shooting, swimming, diving, tennis, table tennis, triathlon and volleyball.

The winter Olympics were even more elite: biathlon, bobsledding, curling, luge, skating and 6 skiing events. There is no snow in the black world. Indigenous could not afford all this expensive equipment.

The elite laugh at our feeble efforts to compete in their sports, like the swimmer from Africa who could only practice in the tiny Holiday Inn Pool of his country. Black athletes excelled in long distance running without shoes; and now sprinting because they have shoes.

In 1936 Hitler was infuriated over the victories of two US black athletes, Jesse Owens and Joe Louis. He did not want what he deemed inferior races involved.

It's all about money! In 1694 the City of London was created when William of Orange turned the Bank of England over to private banker families. They run all the corporate states [UN] worldwide, through the fiction called 'money'.

In 1929 the Vatican was incorporated as a City State under the Lateran Treaty. In 1871 Washington DC was incorporated in the District of Columbia Organic Act. These three city states are property of the Crown.

The host cities are indebted to the city of London Bankers, by design. In Montreal it took almost 40 years to pay off the debt. Today, Montreal's infrastructure is crumbling, with no apparent hope of repair due to lack of money.

What is money? Like in monopoly, it's paper notes backed by nothing. When we can't pay, the bankers send in their US military, created in 1871.

Everyone pays the bankers who are white old men sitting in the City of London [one square mile of the real London.]

The Olympics is a camouflage for them to try and continue their fiction of hierarchy and remain at the top of their pyramid forever.

This is the end of the original lie.

An Officer and a Murderer

MNN. July 24, 2012. This film is about real life serial killer and attacker of women, Col. Russell Williams, the Commander of Canadian Forces Base in Trenton, Ontario. [CBC, July 23, 2012].

He started out with break-ins, sexual assaults and then started murdering women. He stole women's lingerie, wore them and took pictures of himself. He looked ridiculous in their bras and smelling their underwear, while he jerked off in the mirror.

He videotaped and photographed the murders and attacks. In October 2010, a police interrogator asked him why. He said, "It doesn't matter".

He was just appointed to one of the top positions in the Canadian military. Someone was needed to create maniacal killers to send out to the battlefield. He headed up one branch of it, the Air Force.

Williams needed constant orgasms, but not with his wife. He channeled his sexual needs to coolly carry out evil.

As a soldier, his job was to kill people and to lead others to do it. He learned how to create fantasies for his arousal. Eventually he directed his sexual needs to killing women. Imminent danger of being caught increased his sexual desire. Trained troops are expected to do anything they are ordered to do. Drugs enhance sexual drive and mind control, to carry out the killings.

Researchers constantly develop ways to create lethal soldiers. Drugs enhance sexual drive that overrides the natural drive to protect people. Once trained, they need wars and people to kill.

War is artificial, not natural. Are police being trained to become unremorseful murderers today?

The artificially stimulated sex drive needs an outlet. It is being deliberately directed toward killing people, as demonstrated in the Wikileaks video. US soldiers in helicopters shot defenseless people from the air. They reveled and celebrated the kills and then rushed to their barracks to masturbate.

Training today is intensified. Direct commands are shouted to kill, kill, kill. Long range weapons are created so they don't have to look their victim in the eye. Propaganda is tailored to dehumanize the enemy. Was Russ doing research for the Department of National Defense, his employers?

Russell Williams was sent away for life. His colleagues feared their training methods would be exposed to the public if there was a full scale trial. Williams had let it get out of hand.

In Indigenous society, there are purification rituals for warriors who comes back from the battlefield to bring them safely back into society.

Should native families conflict each other, they will go to a certain point without killing each other. Otherwise this would wipe out our species. In white society, they fight until there is no one left, brag about it and have monuments set up in their memory.

James Holmes, the mass murderer at the Bat Man movie theatre in Aurora Colorado, would be a hero in Afghanistan and Iraq for his calculated brutality. It seems this might have been his assignment.

As Irving Berlin wrote in, This is the army, Mr. Jones: "A bunch of frightened rookies were listening, filled with awe. They listened while a sergeant was laying down the law. They stood there at attention, their faces turning red. Their sergeant looked them over, and this is what he said. This is the army, Mr. Williams."

AURORA TODAY'S SAND CREEK MASSACRE 1864

MNN. July 21, 2012. The Aurora theatre killer, James Holmes, grew up in San Diego California. His mother sent him to Denver to study for his Phd in neuroscience.

Americans are horrified about the chaotic, horrific, tumultuous and bloody mass murders in the movie theatre showing "Dark Night Rises". Yet they live unconcerned over the top of our graves. This hemisphere is soaked in our people's blood, all killed by psychotic mass murderers.

Aurora is 100 miles from the site of the Sand Creek massacre, November 29, 1864. Old Denver families were behind this mass murder of Cheyenne and Arapaho men, women and children.

In the spring of 1864 the Cheyenne and Arapaho were ready for peace. They met with US Officers, Evans and Chivington, at Camp Weld outside of Denver. No treaties were signed. The Indians were offered a sanctuary at Fort Lyon. Black Kettle and over 500 Cheyenne and Arapaho travelled south to set up camp on Sand Creek, near Eads, the town later built on top of the massacre site. Some dissenters headed north to join the Sioux.

General Samuel Curtis sent a telegram, "I want no peace till the Indians suffer more". 700 Cavalry volunteers called "100 Dazers", assembled in Denver. The camps of Chief Black Kettle, White Antelope, Left Hand and others, lay in the valley before them. Chivington, with mostly drunken troops, headed to Sand Creek with 4 Howitzers. Black Kettle raised both flags of peace. Chivington raised his arm for attack. Cannon and rifles pounded the camp. The Indians scattered. The frenzied soldiers hunted down and murdered the men, women and children. A few warriors managed to fight back. Silas Soule of Massachussets did not allow his soldiers to fire into the crowd.

Troops continued the murders all day. One bragged about killing 3 women and 5 children who were screaming for mercy. They murdered all the wounded, mutilated and scalped them. They cut open the pregnant women's bellies and laid the fetus on the bodies. They plundered tipis and divided up the herd of horses. Black Kettle's wife was shot 9 times and survived. The Cheyenne Dog Warriors who opposed the peace treaty provided sanctuary for the survivors.

The Colorado volunteers returned to Denver as heroes, with scalps of women and children. Colorado residents celebrated. Chivington appeared on a Denver stage telling war stories and displayed 100 Indigenous scalps, including pubic hair of women. Many of the elite of Denver society today are the children of these murderers.

Eye witnesses came forward and reported the murders. Silas Soule testified against Chivington, and was murdered by Charles Squires. It was found to be a carefully planned massacre. Asked why kids were killed, "Nits make lice", said Chivington.

As word of the massacre spread, the Indigenous resistance to white expansion stiffened. This massacre led to the Little Big Horn battle on June 25-6, 1876 where General George Custer and his men were wiped out by the Lakota lead by Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull.

In December 29, 1890, the US 7th Cavalry commanded by Samuel M. Whitside lead the massacre of over 350 Lakota at Wounded Knee Creek.

We have had to live with these horrors since the arrival of the invaders, while they send their "cry babies" to doctors for counselling.

That mindset to slaughter people was brought here. 80 are shot and killed daily in the US, not counting stabbings and death by other means.

Orders always come from the top. On December 26, 1862 Lincoln sanctioned the hanging of 38 randomly picked Indian men and boys without trial, the largest mass hanging in US history. One week later, January 1, 1863, Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation to free the slaves. The Blacks then formed the regiment called the Buffalo Soldiers who proudly massacred the Indigenous for their masters. Today both races celebrate their plunder with medals and the theft of our land.

Was James Holmes trying to mimic the mindset of those Denver people? If he is insane, then Washington, Grant and Lincoln, and all the other presidents who gave orders to totally annihilate us, are all insane as well.

The Americans must be reminded of this continuing genocide. If they don't know their history, it is bound to repeat itself. The lesson is: be careful what you ask for, you might just get it.

The movie-goers went to the theatre to see murder, death, chaos and plunder. Then they got it for real!

As Bob Marley sang about, "Buffalo soldier, dread-lock rasta."

KANEKOTA DISPUTE GOES TO FEDERAL COURT OF CANADA

MNN. July 18, 2012. Today in the Federal Court of Canada, Thahoketoteh filed an action [T-1396-12] against Her Majesty the Queen. He personally wrote the Statement of Claim based on his ten-year experience in Kanekota, "where the waters come from the earth". Kanekota is a 575 square miles area in the northern reaches of the Grand River. It is six miles deep from the banks of the Grand River starting at Lake Erie continuing to the source. This indigenous land is protected from foreign encroachment for all time by the Royal Proclamation 1784. It is sometimes called the Haldimand Tract.

Their rule of law provides that royal proclamations supercede all Admiralty statutes. All Canadian laws are Admiralty statutes. All courts are Admiralty Courts.

In June 1778 the Mohawk people of the Upper and Lower Castles in New York State moved from their traditional communities, during the American Revolution. They temporarily settled in Lachine [Quebec], within the area known as Lower Canada. In June 1784 they moved to Tyendinaga, on the Bay of Quinte on Lake Ontario. That same year a few families moved to the Grand River. The Royal Proclamation 1784 was signed by Captain General Sir Frederick Haldimand. Violations of the proclamation began immediately.

On August 1, 2006, the Mohawk Women, as caretakers of the land, sent notice to the Toronto School Board to vacate Lot 1, Concession 11, Clearview Township, Simcoe County in the province of Ontario, in the Northeast portion of Kanekota. They vacated but refused to respect Mohawk inherent interest in the land.

Shortly thereafter the current Finance Minister of the Corporation of Canada, Jim "austerity-measure" Flaherty, built a 90-acre estate on part of Lot 1 Concession 11, near Honeywood. The driveway leads to a gate manned by high tech surveillance equipment, leading to 3 three-storey buildings, estimated value of $20 million. They form a compound surrounding a fancy courtyard with two golf holes and two ponds. A construction road was bull-dozed through the man-made forest on the Outdoor Education Center property to build Jimmy's dream.

The Etobicoke Education Center is now listed for sale by Royal LePage, Ginny McEacheran, [1-800-360-5821]. Jim Flaherty's contact is 701 Rossland Road East, Unit 204, Whitby Ontario L1N 8Y9, Tel: 905-665-8182.

In July 2007 Thahoketoteh attended an Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) Hearing to stop Canadian Hydro Developers Inc. from illegally building 88 more windmills. [Alias, TransAlta Corp., 110 – 12th Ave., SW, P.O. Box 1900, Station M, Calgary, Alberta T2P 2M1 Tel: 403-267-7110]. The OMB permitted the illegal construction of Phase 2 in violation of the Royal Proclamation 1784 and Section 35 of the Canadian Constitution. The Women sent notice of their objection.

Thahoketoteh has asked for all financial records on their illegal windmill development, to remove all the decomposing rusting weed-covered windmills, to pay compensation and to restore the land to its original state.

In November 2006 the Women, speaking for the people, land, plants, fish and animals, sent Notice to Enbridge Gas [3000 5th Ave. Place, 425 First St. SW, Calgary Alberta T2P 3L8, Tel: 403-231-3900] that they have no right to install a gas pipeline from Shelburne into Hornings Mills. In 1946 the army constructed a pond there which continuously leached phosphates into the Pine River. Enbridge went on to illegally build the pipeline.

Thahoketoteh insists that Enbridge fully compensate the Kanionkehaka for the illegal construction of their pipeline, for the damage and to restore the land to its natural state. In particular, to clean the Pine River in Hornings Mills.

In April 2011 Thahoketoteh sent a letter to General Sir Peter Wall, [Chief of the General Staff, Ministerial Core Unit, 4545 Zone A, M.O.D., Whithall, London SW 1A 2HB tel: 011 44 207 218 4000].

He informed him about the Highland Group, a nefarious corporation, and their plans to turn 8,800 acres of Kanekota into a mega-quarry. They intend to destroy this Royal Protectorate land forever where we intend to live forever. Thahoketoteh wants a complete list of the shareholders. He recommends Crown agents who ignore the "Royal Proclamation 1784" be charged with High Treason. Death is the penalty.

Thahoketoteh has asked that all stolen farms be returned to the Mohawk people; all settlers legalize their presence in Kanekota; and all squatters be removed at Canada's expense.

Thahoketoteh said, "If the Crown tries to have the case dismissed, they have decided to violate their rule of law and their Royal Proclamation. They would be guilty of high treason, as it is against the Queen".

We are reminded of the classic Led Zeppelin song: "Lyn', cheatin', hurtin', that's all you try to do". It's all over, Jimmy austerity-measure Flaherty, "Your time is gonna come".
